THE ARC OF BALTIMORE WILL HOLD CAMP FOR EVERYONE
Program Allows Parents of Children with Special Needs to Make Summer Plans

BALTIMORE, MD (3/3/08) --- Despite the winter cold, families of children with special needs can begin making summer plans for every member of the family by attending the Camp for Everyone, a summer camp fair sponsored by The Arc of Baltimore.

Part of Baltimore Child's 2008 Camps and Summer Programs Fair, the Camp for Everyone "allows parents to gather information, meet camp personnel, and comparison shop for summer activities for all of the children in the family, including those with special needs," says The Arc of Baltimore's Executive Director, Stephen Morgan.

The Arc of Baltimore's Camp for Everyone will be held on Sunday, March 9 from noon – 3 p.m. at the Crowne Plaza Timonium (formerly the Timonium Holiday Inn Select), 2004 Greenspring Drive, Timonium, MD.

Admission to the 2008 Camps and Summer Programs Fair and The Arc of Baltimore's Camp for Everyone is free. Ample free parking is available on-site.

Organizations exhibiting at The Arc of Baltimore's Camp for Everyone include: Baltimore City Department of Recreation & Parks Therapeutic Division; Baltimore County Department of Recreation & Parks Therapeutic Division; BARS; Boy Scouts of America; Camp Greentop; Chesapeake Therapeutic Riding; Club Venture; Discovery Program; Easter Seals Camp Fairlee Manor; Elks Camp Barrett Camp Fire Patuxent; League of Dreams; Rebounders "I Can Do It Too;" Search Beyond Adventures LINC; and Special Olympics of Maryland.

Children's entertainment will be provided throughout the event, allowing parents to talk with representatives from all of the participating programs while their youngsters enjoy the fun and games.

The event also will feature a drawing for a $500 camper scholarship to any of the participating programs.
